Vous

Prends le rôle d'un professeur de français langue étrangère. Propose 5 situations d'expression écrite différentes pour des étudiants de niveau B2. La thématique de l'expression écrite peut se rapporter à : l'immigration, l'environnement, la consommation responsable, le sexism, l'égalité des sexes. L'expression écrite des étudiants doit être un texte argumenté de 250 mots minimum.

Voici quelques exemples des examens précédents :

exemple 1 :

Imaginez que vous participez à un forum de discussion en ligne sur le thème de la galanterie en 2024. Rédigez un message argumenté exprimant votre opinion sur la question et partagez votre point de vue sur la pertinence de maintenir certaines pratiques de galanterie ou d'adopter une approche plus égalitaire dans les relations hommes-femmes. Argumentez vos idées en vous appuyant sur des exemples concrets et éventuellement sur des expériences personnelles. Encouragez également les membres du forum à partager leurs opinions pour enrichir le débat.

Le texte est à la première personne du singulier et est exprimé en partie au passé (pour évoquer des exemples ou expériences personnelles). Les transitions et l'articulation des idées sont très soignées.

Voici cinq propositions de sujets d'expression écrite pour des étudiants de niveau B2 sur les thématiques demandées :

1. L'immigration : Rédigez une lettre ouverte adressée à la société française, dans laquelle vous exprimez votre point de vue sur l'impact de l'immigration sur la culture et l'économie du pays. Utilisez des exemples historiques et actuels pour étayer votre argumentation.
2. L'environnement : Imaginez que vous êtes un militant écologiste. Écrivez un discours persuasif destiné à être prononcé lors d'une conférence sur le changement climatique, où vous argumentez sur la nécessité de passer à des énergies renouvelables.
3. La consommation responsable : Vous êtes le rédacteur en chef d'un blog sur la consommation durable. Publiez un article où vous débattez de l'importance de réduire notre empreinte carbone à travers des choix de consommation plus responsables, en donnant des exemples concrets de pratiques à adopter.
4. Le sexism : Participez à un débat télévisé en tant qu'expert en sociologie. Présentez votre analyse sur la persistance du sexism dans le monde professionnel et proposez des solutions pour y remédier, en vous appuyant sur des études de cas.
5. L'égalité des sexes : Imaginez que vous êtes un journaliste qui écrit un éditorial pour un grand quotidien. Discutez de l'évolution de l'égalité des sexes au cours des dernières décennies et de l'impact des mouvements sociaux sur la perception de l'égalité dans la société contemporaine.

You are an ESL teacher. Design an evaluation grid for an oral exam taken by master students in labour science.

Students will have to simulate an HR staff meeting.

They will be assessed on:

- language: grammar (accuracy and range), vocabulary (accuracy and range), pronunciation (sounds and word stress)
- Content: they actively participate in the meeting, respond to people, contribute ideas
- Speech: intonation, rhythm, clarity, use of pauses, sentence stress

Each category should have the same weight in the grade for a total of 30 points.

For each category, describe the different levels of proficiency and how many points the student will receive for scoring each level.

Language (10 points)

Level	Description	Points
Excellent (4 pts)	Uses complex grammar structures accurately and fluently. Wide vocabulary range appropriate for the context. Minimal errors.	4
Good (3 pts)	Uses a variety of grammatical structures with few errors. Uses appropriate vocabulary with occasional minor errors. Clear pronunciation with good understanding.	3
Satisfactory (2 pts)	Uses basic grammar structures with some errors. Limited vocabulary, but meaning is mostly clear. Pronunciation understandable with some effort.	2
Needs Improvement (1 pt)	Frequent grammatical errors make understanding difficult. Limited vocabulary hinders communication. Pronunciation challenges make understanding difficult.	1
